

50th Annual HUMAN RELATIONS LABORATORY

AUG 4 to 10, 2019

Sponsored by the Goodenough Community

How to Live in Heaven, HERE!

Heaven is not a location but a state of mind, an attitude of AWE and WONDER. We can create heaven inside ourselves through spiritual and psychological development, and between and among individuals through relationships, collaborative circles, and the culture we create together.

Lab feels like heaven — right here and right now — fluid with spaciousness, where anything can happen. In this space experiential learning encourages the human development that is fundamental to living in Heaven Here! For 7 days you can:

- Practice radical openness in a safe context
- Connect deeply with others who are also growing themselves
- Live in the natural world, explore freedom and energy, and live in the present
- Dissolve your barriers to love
- Enjoy creative expression of all kinds

$750 | The Lab fee includes accommodations and learning materials.

Special rates available for groups of three or more, seniors, students, and interns.

Please consider an additional tax-deductible donation to the scholarship fund. Thank you.
